ENROL NOW FOR THE PsySSA NATIONAL ETHICS WORKSHOP (6 CPD POINTS)

Current Ethical Issues (Focus: Children's Act) Facilitator: Dr Saths Cooper

CAPE TOWN Sat 30 OCTOBER 2010 (09:00 – 16:00)

Psychologists are often confronted in practice settings with ethical issues that cause serious concern for them. Private practitioners, in particular, have to make decisions in their consulting rooms without the luxury of external consultation. In a society where consumer rights are increasing and persons who feel aggrieved by the outcomes within the legal system (which is usually unassailable) tend to vent on psychologists who become targets for failure in their receipt of justice.

This interactive workshop will deal with current ethical issues, implications of the Children's Act, actual disciplinary cases, and the thorny "scope of practice" rules and problems posed by the medical scheme industry.

The facilitator was instrumental in crafting the Ethical Code for Psychologists, the first to be legislated for psychology in South Africa. He was Vice President of the HPCSA, Vice President of the International Union of Psychological Science, Chair of the Professional Board, PsySSA President and is President of the 2012 Cape Town 30th International Congress of Psychology.

This workshop meets the ethics requirements for registered persons, and includes refreshments.

COST: R900.00 PsySSA Members (R75 discount for each registered guest); R1200.00 Non members
