Conference

Towards a Decolonial Psychology: Theories from the Global South
University of the Western Cape
Cape Town, South Africa
21-22 February 2019

The University of the Western Cape, in collaboration with the University of Kansas, University of Pretoria, University of South Africa, South African Medical Research Council, University of the Witwatersrand, Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the Pan-African Psychology Union, is hosting a conference in Cape Town, South Africa on 21 – 22 February 2019.

Keynote addresses will be delivered by Professor Nelson Maldonado-Torres from Rutgers University, USA, Professor Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni from the University of South Africa, and Professor Shose Kessi from the University of Cape Town. The programme will include parallel sessions focused on a range of themes that engage the decolonial turn in psychology.
